Dear Dr. Biradar,

I am happy to know that you will be visiting the United States and would like to invite you to come to Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center El Paso to continue our ongoing discussion about establishing a Cancer Research Center at your university. During your visit you will be able to meet with the cancer researchers on our campus and discuss with them about their research interests and the possibility of establishing collaborative cancer research projects. During your visit you will have the opportunity to discuss about developing a memorandum of understanding between the two institutions. We can discuss different aspects of the memorandum of understanding like the scope of co-operations between the institutions and the related activities and management plans of monitoring the activities. This could lead to productive discussion where we can identify how both the institutions will benefit from such a joint and collaborative effort. I look forward to your visit to our campus.
