Editors Note

Dear Reader,

Well, the new volume of our bulletin is in your hand.

The focus of this trimester is improvement in quality and SWOC analysis.

This exercise enabled us to identify our strength, weaknesses & focus on them to convert into opportunities.

I am sure each one of us need to do this & march towards betterment of self & society.

Happy reading.

Student Writes...

It is like a dreams came true, .. to be a student of such a divine college, where we find the real meaning of medicine.

Atmosphere at the college is always so holy and homely. Teachers and staff are so knowledgeable and keen about the development and career of every individual. They supportive of students and are always available for every thing that could help us develop ourselves. They bring so many events and encourage us with innovative ideas for occasion and help us in conducting the these in every possible way to develop our skills.

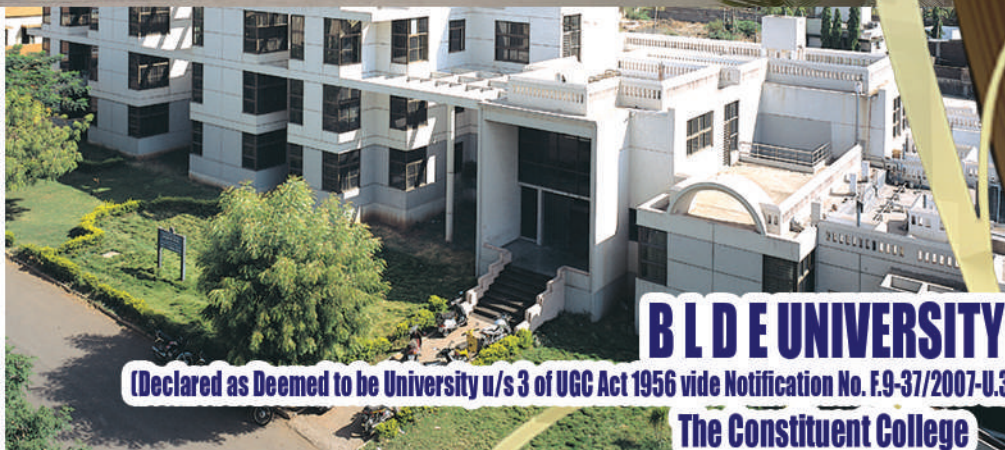

Co-curricular activities made us escape into a space of pleasure, excitement and joy. The cultural fest being a great platform for talent which also added significantly to my memorable moments in college. There is nothing that is out of our reach or we cannot learn, we have every facility and resources to enhance our knowledge with full facility classrooms, laboratories, library etc. It would give me an immense pleasure to represent this college in my it gave us the air of comfort, the belief and the zeal to achieve the highest points of our career. The days spent here will surely stand up to the best.

In my life always.
