Report on the three-day camp organized by the Department of Physiotherapy on the eve of World Physiotherapy Day:

World Physiotherapy Day (World PT Day) is a global healthcare event celebrated on the 8th of September every year since 1996, commemorating the date of the World Physiotherapy Foundation in 1951. This day serves as a respect to all the physiotherapists and the services they render, achieving the ultimate goal of a symptom-free movement at basic to complex physical activities in patients and the healthy alike.

Thus, as a special contribution on the eve of World Physiotherapy Day, a free Physiotherapy camp was organized from 11th September 2023 to 13th September 2023. The inaugural function of the free Physiotherapy camp was held in Physiotherapy OPD at 11 a.m. The program began with the invocation followed by a welcome address by Miss. Nehara (6th-semester student), Dr. Hemant formally introduced Dr. Mallikarjun Patil, Vice Principal (Clinical), Shri B. M. Patil Medical College, and Dr. Gaurav presented a bouquet to the Chief Guest as a welcome gesture. Dr. Mallikarjun Patil, Sir, spoke about the significance of Physiotherapy & and appealed to the public & and patients to take benefit of the camp. Dr. Basavaraj Chandu discussed the significance of Physiotherapy and proposed a vote of thanks.
