Report of the Workshop on “Soft Skills”:

A workshop on “Soft Skills” was organized as part of the Pre-Placement Activity for students of Physiotherapy Course (2021 batch) on Friday, 10th October 2025 at Lecture hall no1, School of Physiotherapy. Recognizing the importance of soft skills in academic success and employability, the workshop aimed to equip the students with essential skills such as oral communication skills, listening skills, Networking skills, Empathy, Positive attitude and Leadership skills. The workshop emphasized the importance of developing soft skills and professional behavior for career success. The resource person for the session, Dr. Siddaling Talikoti conducted an engaging and interactive session covering key aspects. The workshop was highly beneficial and received positive feedback from the participants. It helped them understand the importance of effective communication, adaptability, and emotional intelligence in professional and personal growth. The hands-on sessions promoted confidence, active participation, and self-awareness among the attendees. The workshop on Soft Skills was a great success. It provided valuable insights and practical approaches for enhancing personal and professional effectiveness. The participants expressed their appreciation for the interactive and motivating session.
