Report of the Workshop on “Facing Interviews”:

As a part of the Pre-Placement activity, a workshop on “Facing Interviews” was conducted for the students of Physiotherapy Course (2021 batch) on 30th October 2025 at Lecture Hall no 1, School of Physiotherapy building. The workshop aimed to equip participants with essential skills and confidence to perform effectively during job interviews. It brought together students eager to enhance their communication, presentation, and interpersonal abilities. In the workshop, the resource person Dr. Siddaling Talikoti highlighted the following,

1. Effective verbal and non-verbal communication skills.
2. Common and situational interview questions.

The workshop was a great success as it sensitized the participants with Skill-Building Exercise coupled with Techniques for self-introduction, answering challenging questions, and handling stress. The workshop successfully achieved its goal as the students

1. Gained a clearer understanding of interview dynamics and employer expectations.
2. Learned practical strategies for answering behavioural and technical questions.
3. Improved confidence, body language, and communication skills.
4. Received constructive feedback to enhance their future performance in real interviews.

The workshop on Facing Interviews proved to be a valuable learning experience, preparing students to face interviews with confidence and professionalism.
