5.4 Pro Vice-Chancellor's Message

It is with a deep sense of responsibility and pride that I present this Annual Report of our BLDE (Deemed University), a premier higher educational institution dedicated predominantly to Health Sciences education, research, and service. This year, we have included the School of Law in the ambit of the University. The year under review reflects our sustained commitment to academic excellence, ethical medical education, and societal responsibility.

Health sciences Universities occupy a unique and critical position in nation-building. Our mandate extends beyond producing competent healthcare professionals to nurturing compassionate, ethical, and socially accountable leaders capable of addressing evolving healthcare challenges. During the past year, the University has continued to align its academic programs with national health priorities, regulatory frameworks, and global best practices.

Our affiliated colleges and constituent institutions have demonstrated commendable progress in undergraduate, postgraduate, and super-specialty education. Emphasis on competency-based curricula, skill-oriented training, early clinical exposure, and interdisciplinary learning has strengthened the quality of medical, dental, nursing, allied health, and public health education. Faculty development programs and academic audits have further reinforced teaching standards.

Research and innovation remain central to our vision. The University has encouraged translational research, collaborative projects, and ethical research practices aimed at addressing region-specific and national health concerns. Increased publications, funded research projects, and student research initiatives underscore a growing culture of inquiry and evidence-based practice.

Community engagement and outreach activities have continued to be a hallmark of our University. Through health camps, preventive health programs, school health initiatives, and public awareness campaigns, our institutions have extended healthcare services to underserved populations, reaffirming our commitment to equity and social justice.

Digital transformation, academic governance reforms, and quality assurance mechanisms have been strengthened to ensure transparency, efficiency, and accountability. One day national conference on cybercrime was conducted by Law school, which is the burning topic in this era of digital fraud.

I place on record my sincere appreciation to the faculty members, students, administrators, healthcare workers, and affiliated institutions for their dedication and collective efforts. I also acknowledge the guidance and support of statutory bodies, government authorities, and all stakeholders who continue to place their trust in the University.

As we look ahead, the University remains steadfast in its mission to emerge as a center of excellence in health sciences education, research, and healthcare delivery—guided by the values of integrity, compassion, innovation, and service to humanity.

➤ Academic Council Curriculum Progress Report

Executive Summary

During the academic year 2024–2025, the Academic Council of the Medical College undertook comprehensive curriculum development and implementation activities with a primary focus on the Competency-Based Medical Education (CBME) framework. These initiatives covered Undergraduate (MBBS), Postgraduate (PG), Super Specialty, and Post-Doctoral programs and were carried out in strict accordance with the latest statutory mandates of the National Medical Commission (NMC) and the Postgraduate Medical Education Regulations (PGMER) 2023.

Undergraduate (MBBS) Curriculum Updates

The Academic Council closely monitored and guided the systematic implementation of CBME guidelines to ensure competency-driven medical education at the undergraduate level.

MBBS Admissions - 2024

- The modified MBBS curriculum was formally adopted for students admitted during the 2024 academic year.
- Detailed departmental syllabi for Phase I and Phase II were developed and implemented in line with CBME requirements.

Phase-wise Implementation

- Phase II:
Both CBME Regulations 2023 and 2024 were successfully integrated into the teaching–learning process, assessment methods, and competency certification.
- Phase III (Part I and Part II):
The revised CBME Regulations (2023) were implemented, emphasizing clinical exposure, skill acquisition, and structured assessment mechanisms.
- Ongoing Development:
Detailed curriculum design and documentation for Phase III are currently in progress, following the most recent CBME guidelines issued by the NMC.

Postgraduate and Super Specialty Programs:

Significant curriculum restructuring was undertaken to align Postgraduate and Super Specialty medical education with contemporary national competency standards.

- PGMER 2023 Alignment:
The curricula for all Postgraduate Degree and Super Specialty programs were revised in accordance with the Postgraduate Medical Education Regulations (PGMER) 2023.
- Subject-wise Curriculum Revision:
A total of 24 Postgraduate subjects underwent comprehensive curriculum revision, incorporating competency-based objectives, structured clinical training, and outcome-oriented assessment strategies.

- Broad Adoption of CBME:

CBME frameworks were formally institutionalized across all PG disciplines, with emphasis on hands-on skill acquisition, Entrustable Professional Activities (EPAs), and measurable learning milestones.

Work in Progress and Future Initiatives

The Academic Council is actively engaged in completing the remaining curriculum transitions to ensure full statutory compliance across all programs.

Program	Current Status	Statutory Alignment
MBBS Phase III	Detailed curriculum drafting in progress	CBME Guidelines
Post-Doctoral Fellowship Programs	Curriculum modification underway	PGMER 2023

Regulatory Compliance

The Academic Council confirms that all curriculum revisions, implementations, and ongoing developments during the reporting period are in strict adherence to the following regulatory frameworks:

- National Medical Commission (NMC) Undergraduate Medical Education Board (UMEB) Guidelines, 2024
- Postgraduate Medical Education Regulations (PGMER), 2023

➤ Curriculum for Allied Health Sciences (AHS):

The curriculum for the Undergraduate and Postgraduate Allied Health Sciences (AHS) programmes was developed in accordance with the University Grants Commission (UGC) guidelines under the Choice Based Credit System (CBCS). The approved curriculum has been implemented since the inception of the AHS UG and PG programmes in 2020. Subsequently, minor revisions to the curriculum, primarily involving credit modifications, were carried out in 2024.

Program Duration

The Allied Health Sciences (AHS) undergraduate programs are designed with a duration of four years, consisting of three years of academic instruction followed by one year of compulsory internship/clinical training, ensuring adequate theoretical knowledge and hands-on professional exposure.

Semester Pattern

The curriculum follows a semester system with eight semesters, two per academic year:

Odd Semesters (I, III, V, VII): July – December

Even Semesters (II, IV, VI, VIII): January/February – June

Eligibility Criteria

Candidates seeking admission to AHS programs must:

Have passed Higher Secondary (10+2) or equivalent examination with Science (Physics, Chemistry, and Biology – PCB).

The qualifying examination must be recognized by an Indian University or a duly constituted Board.
Secure a minimum aggregate of 45% marks.

Choice Based Credit System (CBCS)

All AHS programs are structured under the Choice Based Credit System (CBCS), which promotes flexibility and learner-centric education.

Credit System

Credits are allocated based on instructional hours and course requirements over a 15–20 week semester:

Lecture (L): 1 credit = 1 hour per week

Tutorial/Practical (T/P): 1 credit = 2 hours per week

Clinical Training/Rotation (CR): 1 credit = 3 hours per week

Research Project (RP): 1 credit = 2 hours per week

(Maximum of 20–25 credits per semester)

13. Report from Controller of Examination (COE):

13.1 Examination Report of COE

Examinations are conducted for Medical, Allied Health Science, School of Law undergraduate courses, postgraduate courses (including super-speciality), and Ph.D. programs.

- Entrance examinations for Ph.D. programs are conducted through online mode.
- Examinations of branch campuses are also conducted.
- Question Banks are generated in each subject by internal subject experts, and question papers are selected from the Question Bank.
- For paper-based examinations, question papers are Xeroxed and distributed to examination halls on the day of the examination.
- Central valuation is carried out through double valuation (external & internal) using the “On-Screen Marking” system, after scanning and uploading the answer scripts (candidate's identity is masked). A third valuation is conducted if there is a difference of more than 15% between the two valuations.
- Results are published within 10–30 days after the last examination.
- The Academic Council has granted autonomy in assessment status for selected institutions/departments for a period of 3/5 years.

Objectives of the Department:

- Conduct examinations as per the annual schedule.
- Ensure timely declaration of results as per the academic calendar.

Digital Library

Student Reference Books

The Central Library was established in 1986. The Central Library, along with 30 departmental libraries, supports teaching, learning, and research by providing physical and intellectual access to information. The library has a comprehensive collection of resources in both print and electronic forms to fulfil the information needs of faculty, students, and research scholars.

The library has a built-in carpet area of 2400 sq. meters. It is spread over two floors and has separate reading halls for undergraduates, postgraduates, and faculty. The Central Library is entirely air-conditioned and has separate references, textbooks and periodical sections. The overall seating capacity of the library is 720. The Digital Library has 54 computers with an internet speed of 1 GBPS and can be accessed through the campus network. The library is also equipped with Wi-Fi to facilitate users' access to the internet with their own devices.

The library uses KOHA-integrated library management software, which includes all the library's housekeeping operation modules, such as acquisition, cataloguing, serial control, circulation, and OPAC.

The library has implemented the Radio Frequency Identification (RFID) system. This is the most effective way of managing library collections and providing enhanced services to users. Benefits include finding misplaced reading materials, sorting, inventory accuracy, stock verification procedures, security control, and video surveillance. A workstation uses automated data capture technology with tiny microchips and miniature antennas affixed to documents. From users to library staff, RFID plays a vital role in redefining library processes to make everyone's job easier.

The library subscribes to Scopus, an abstract and indexing database used as a bibliographic database containing abstracts and citations for academic journal articles. It covers the scientific, technical, medical, and social sciences. Searches in Scopus include searches of scientific web pages.

The library has created an Institutional Repository using D-Space software, which provides access to dissertations and doctoral theses, previous question papers, and faculty publications (journal articles and book chapters).

The library has subscribed to Drill Bit / i-Thenticate plagiarism checker software.

All digital resources in the library and OPAC are provided with remote access using the Knimbus remote access software. All users can remotely access the library through individual login credentials.

Intranet and Portals: Internal platforms provide a centralized location for information related to academics, events, and announcements.

Internet Access and Medical Education:

The Internet, the most useful technology of modern times, helps us not only in our daily lives but also in our professional lives. For educational purposes, it is widely used to gather information and to do research or add to the knowledge of various subjects.

We are using a dedicated (1:1) 1 Gig EnterpriseClass Internet Leased Line from the reputed ISP providers-Bharati Airtel and Reliance Jio, with Redundancy of 300Mbps (Total: 1300Mbps) Leased Line for Load Balancing and Primary Link failure.

The Internet plays a very vital role in education. There is no doubt that in this modern era, everyone prefers Google for their queries, problems or doubts. Popular search engines like Google, Yahoo, etc. are the topmost choice of people as they offer an easy and instant reach to the vast amount of information in just a few seconds. It contains a wealth of knowledge that can be searched at any time. The internet has introduced improvements in technology, communication, and online entertainment.

The importance of the internet in education to students means that it makes it easier for them to research things and relearn the content taught in school. People use it according to their needs and interests.

There are many benefits of the internet in the field of education. Some of these are:

1. Cost-Effective and Affordable Education

One of the largest barriers to education is the high cost. The Internet improves the quality of education, which is one of the pillars of sustainable development of a nation. It provides education through Videos (like YouTube tutorial videos) and web tutorials, which are affordable to everyone and cost-effective.

2. Student – Teacher and Peer Interaction

The internet has allowed students to be in constant contact with their teachers or with other classmates with the help of social media, messaging apps and chat forums. Parents can interact as well as communicate with teachers and school authorities about their child's performance in school. Interaction with like-minded people on forums can help students to explore new ideas and enrich their knowledge.

3. Effective Teaching and Learning Tool

The Internet has become a major tool for effective teaching as well as a learning tool. Teachers can use it as a teaching tool by posting their teaching materials (notes and videos) on the school website or forum. The learning process becomes interesting and diverse with the use of tutorial videos and notes. Teachers can teach with the use of animation, PowerPoint slides, and images to capture the students' attention.

4. Easy Access to Quality Education

Students can easily access quality education materials like tutorial videos on YouTube for free or pay fees online for more quality study materials. Teachers can also make use of the internet by providing the students with extra study material and resources such as interactive lessons, educational quizzes, as well as tutorials. Teachers can record their lectures and provide them to the students for revisions, which is better than reading from notes.

1. Interaction with Digital Media

Regular use of digital media is one of the most basic parts of our lives. Digital bulletin boards save paper, allow the display of videos and audios to attract the attention of students. Nowadays, many paid sites provide education resources which are rich in quality and easily understandable to masses.

2. Keeping you updated with the Latest Information

Information is the biggest advantage that the internet offers. There is a huge amount of information available for every subject. It keeps us up to date with the latest information regarding the subjects in which we are interested.

3. Learning with Multimedia

It helps the students with the learning process as it helps to simplify the knowledge. Also, it helps to visualize what is being taught by the teachers in school. If a student wants to prepare for final exams, you can access Video Tutorials and other resources online through the Internet.

ILL (Internet Leased Line)

An Internet leased line is a premium Internet connectivity product, normally delivered over fiber, which provides uncontended, symmetrical bandwidth with full-duplex traffic. It is also known as an Ethernet leased line, dedicated line, data circuit or private line.

Advantages of an Internet Leased Line:

- Symmetric Speeds: Internet Leased Line offers fixed bandwidth and symmetric speeds. Businesses get access to identical upload and download speeds so that they can conveniently manage their work. Broadband connections offer asymmetric bandwidth i.e., faster for downloads than for uploads.
- Uncontended & Fixed Bandwidth: With an ILL service, you can get the assurance of consistent speeds and contention. In broadband connection, various premises share the same cable in various ways, resulting in low speed and high latency rates. Even if you are getting a 76Mbps connection, the speed will depend on how many people are using broadband at the same time. During peak hours, you might experience very slow speed and struggle to manage your day to day operations that require seamless internet access. As an ILL offers a fixed bandwidth to the businesses, there is no contention with others. With a 10 Mbps ILL connectivity, you will be receiving complete 10 Mbps speed connectivity.
- Reliability and SLAs: An ILL connection comes with industry-backed SLAs – Service Level Agreements to commit businesses about a certain level of service from ISP. Even if you are facing poor internet connectivity or your internet is down, the situation will be fixed within a few hours. Many broadband providers don't provide SLAs. With internet leased lines, users can expect strong, to-the-point SLAs with better reliability.
- Cost Savings on Network Maintenance: If any business plans to expand, the numbers of users and processes will also increase. In this scenario, an ILL connection is an excellent option because it is a scalable service which promises low latency, low jitter, and more uptime. If businesses want to upgrade their speed and bandwidth, they just have to upgrade their plan as per their activities and requirements.

- Introduction to Digital Integrated Campus Network on Optical Fiber Technology A Campus Optical Fiber (OFC) Digital Data Network is a computer network that interconnects Local Area Networks (LAN) throughout a limited geographical area, such as a university campus or corporate campus. The networking equipment's (switches, routers) and transmission media (optical fiber, copper plant, Cat6 cabling etc.) are almost entirely owned by the campus tenant / owner: an enterprise, university, government etc.

College or university campus area networks often interconnect a variety of buildings, including administrative buildings, academic buildings, university libraries, campus or student centers, residence halls, gymnasiums, and other outlying structures, like conference centers, technology centers, and training institutes.

All of the nodes in a campus network are interconnected by means of optical fiber media, taking advantage of Gigabit Ethernet or 10-Gigabit Ethernet technology. In some cases, Wi-Fi hot spots or even a hot zone make up the user end of the network, for example in university student centers or libraries where numerous people simultaneously use portable and mobile devices such as notebook and tablet computers to conduct research and carry on communications.

Computers connected to a network are broadly categorized as servers or workstations. Servers are generally not used by humans directly but rather run continuously to provide "services" to the other computers (and their human users) on the network. Services provided can include printing and faxing, software hosting, file storage and sharing, messaging, data storage and retrieval, complete access control (security) for the network's resources, and many others.

Workstations are called such because they typically do have a human user which interacts with the network through them. Workstations were traditionally considered a desktop, consisting of a computer, keyboard, display, and mouse, or a laptop, with integrated keyboard, display, and touchpad. With the advent of the tablet computer, and the touch screen devices such as iPad and iPhone, our definition of workstation is quickly evolving to include those devices, because of their ability to interact with the network and utilize network services.

On a single LAN, computers and servers may be connected by cables or wirelessly. Wireless access to a wired network is made possible by wireless access points (WAPs). These WAP devices provide a bridge between computers and networks.

Applications for Campus OFC Network for Teaching, Learning and Research:

- User access control

Modern networks almost always have one or more servers which allows centralized management for users and for network resources to which they have access. User credentials on a privately-owned and operated network may be as simple as a user name and password, but with ever-increasing attention to computing security issues, these servers are critical to ensuring that sensitive information is only available to authorized users.

- To access e-resources like Library e-journal subscription from all the departments and hostels.
- Video conference facility.
- Virtual Classroom for live streaming lectures within and outside campus.
- To access Health Information System (HIS) application software
- To access Management Information System (MIS) application software.
- E-learning facility
- Computing resources. The institution can provide access to special purpose computing devices which individual users would not normally own. For example, a network might have high-speed high quality printers strategically located around a campus for instructor or student use.

Future Roadmap

- 1) Below are the solutions listed that can be integrated with the existing OFC Network in the future.
 - a) VOIP/ IP phones.
 - b) Online Learning Management Solution.
 - c) Live Streaming and Hosting Academic Lectures and Events through Webinars.
- 2) Identifying the prospective areas requiring immediate attention for the IT Facility for creating a vibrant academic and research environment.
- 3) Making the website a repository of all the available information, facilities, resources and opportunities that the University offers so that the stakeholders of the University are not deterred by any barriers of geographical location while accessing the relevant information. Open educational resources (OERs), Massive Open Online Courses (MOOCs) and resources available under 'Creative Commons' license will be linked to provide vast pool of useful and supplementary material to the students. MOOCs will offer the students anytime-anywhere learning environment, which is becoming increasingly popular as one of the most effective tools for knowledge sharing and dissemination.
- 4) Integrate AI and data management systems for effective monitoring and evaluation of learning outcomes.
- 5) Organize digital educational content to align with existing curricula can be critical in providing users and teachers easy access to relevant information.
- 6) Planning to deploy Remote Access Software Solution to access all e-resources remotely, including IP-based e-journals like ProQuest.
- 7) Campus-wide Extension of Wi-Fi and Security IP Surveillance.
- 8) Secured Storage Solution for Academic and Administrative Data.

Note: These are only a few examples, but the possibilities are endless.

24. Report on MEU & HR Cell FDP/CME/S/S/C/W

Medical Education Unit (MEU):

Overview

Promoting quality in medical education is the responsibility of a Medical Education Unit (MEU), a specialised division within a medical facility. To create, implement, and evaluate medical education programs, the MEU is typically staffed by medical educators, educational specialists, and technologists. An MEU's primary objective is to foster a culture of academic achievement, creativity, and scholarship, ultimately enhancing patient outcomes and care.

Relevance

It is impossible to exaggerate the significance of an MEU. It provides medical educators with a platform to create courses, assess student learning outcomes, and enhance their teaching skills. Additionally, MEUs help medical education include technology, simulation, and other cutting-edge teaching strategies. MEUs support the development of skilled, sympathetic, and socially conscious medical professionals by advancing best practices in medical education. Additionally, MEUs frequently participate in scholarly and research endeavors, producing new information and perspectives that inform medical education policy and practice.

The Anti-Ragging Cell at BLDE (Deemed to be University) plays a crucial role in ensuring a safe and respectful campus environment by strictly prohibiting ragging in any form, whether verbal, written, or physical. Headed by senior faculty members and supported by hostel wardens and student representatives, the Cell conducts awareness campaigns, monitors student interactions, and swiftly addresses complaints through a robust system that includes a dedicated emergency helpline and the filing of FIRs in serious cases. All new students and their parents must submit anti-ragging affidavits and undertakings as mandated by UGC and state law, with non-compliance resulting in immediate cancellation of admission. The Cell enforces stringent punishments for offenders, ranging from suspension to expulsion and legal action, in accordance with the Karnataka Education Act and Supreme Court guidelines. Through these comprehensive measures, BLDE (Deemed to be University) is strongly committed to maintaining a ragging-free educational atmosphere.

Subject: Assessment of Annual Declaration Form and grant of Renewal of Undergraduate seats (MBBS) for the year 2024-25 - regarding.

Sir/ Madam,

I am directed to convey that all medical colleges/Institutes having valid Letter of Permission (LoP) for MBBS admission are required to fill the details/data of respective Institutions on NMC portal for Annual Declaration as required in the NMC Act, 2019 and various regulations. Accordingly, through Public notices, all colleges/Institutes were directed to submit the details on the portal. Details submitted by your college have been assessed by the experts and accordingly your college was issued a show cause notice containing the details of deficiencies observed by the experts while evaluating the annual declaration form, video of examination, SAF-C provided by your college along with the AEBAS report.

2. Vide the above show cause notice issued to your college, it was directed to furnish the reply regarding each of the points raised in the show cause notice within three days (3 days) and give an explanation as to why the seats allocated to your institution for MBBS not be reduced in A-Y 2024-25, or should a monetary penalty as per the regulations not be imposed since your college has not fulfilled the provisions laid down under NMC Act 2019 and other various guidelines, regulation notified by NMC. Here, it is pertinent to reiterate that all the medical colleges were earlier continuously intimated in the form of circulars/public notices uploaded through NMC website and show cause notices stating to take necessary action to fulfill the provisions laid in various regulations and guidelines by NMC. Further, vide above show cause notice issued, your medical colleges were given an additional opportunity to submit the point-wise explanation on the observations, if any, through the virtual hearing before the Undergraduate Medical Education Board.

3. In the above virtual hearing, your college was represented by the Dean/Principal/Vice-Principal/HoD, who appeared before the Board on 03/05/2024. However, the clarifications furnished by your institution were not found convincing and satisfactory. The college also accepted the deficiencies and assured to fulfill the same within a very short span of time.

4. Since the portal for submission of Annual Declaration Form has been introduced first time, taking a lenient view the Board decided to grant renewal of 200 seats for undergraduate (MBBS) for the year 2024-25 subject to deposit of a fine of Rs.8,00,000/- (Rupees eight lacs only) as a first measure; subsequently, after a gap of two months, the re-assessment of your college will be carried out. If deficiencies exist with your college, stringent action as mandated under MSMER-2023 Chapter-III clause-8 under the heading penalties shall be imposed.

5. As per, it is directed to remit the penalty amount within seven days (7 days) into "NMC Own Resources, Canara Bank Account No. 90682160000025, IFSC code CNRB0019109" and forward confirmation of payment along with transaction details to ug.scn@nmc.org.in.

6. If you are not satisfied and aggrieved with the decision of the Board, you are free to prefer an appeal before the Commission under Section 9, Chapter IV of the Maintenance of Standards of Medical Education Regulations, 2023, (MSMER, 2023) within sixty days of the issue of this letter.

7. This issue with the approval of the Competent Authority

1. Introduction

Established in 1910, the BLDE Association is committed to providing quality education from primary to university level, particularly in the educationally backward region of North Karnataka. The Association sponsors and manages over 80 educational institutions, including primary schools, high schools, pre-university colleges, and degree colleges offering programs in arts, science, commerce, law, management, fine arts, pharmacy, nursing, ayurveda, sericulture, engineering, polytechnics, and medical sciences. The Association also sponsors BLDE (Deemed to be University).

Shri B. M. Patil Medical College, Hospital & Research Centre became operational in September 1986. It received permanent recognition in 1991 for an intake of 150 MBBS students, which was enhanced to 200 seats in 2022. The institution offers postgraduate programs in 24 departments and super-specialty courses in Urology and Cardiology.

Initially affiliated with Karnatak University, Dharwad (up to 1996), the college later became affiliated with Rajiv Gandhi University of Health Sciences (RGUHS), Bengaluru, from 1996 to 2008. With the establishment of BLDE (Deemed to be University) in 2008, Shri B. M. Patil Medical College became its first constituent college.

The undergraduate medical program is recognized by the Sri Lankan Medical Council and is listed in the WHO Directory of Medical Schools and IMED-FAIMER. The alumni of the institution are well placed across the globe. The college is supported by a highly qualified, experienced, and research-oriented faculty, with student-centric and proactive administration.

The Medical College and Hospital are located adjacent to each other on a sprawling 54-acre campus in the heart of the city. Faculty Development Program (FDP) MEU:

Basic Course in Medical Education (BCME) Workshop

The Medical Education Unit conducted the Basic Course in Medical Education (BCME) from 28 to 30 November 2024 at BLDE (Deemed to be University), Shri B. M. Patil Medical College. The workshop was coordinated by Dr. Praveen Ganganahalli, Associate Professor, Community Medicine and MEU Coordinator, facilitated by Dr. Vinod Prabhushetty, NMC Regional Centre Internal Faculty.

A total of 30 faculty members participated, including Professors, Associate Professors, Assistant Professors, and Senior Residents, representing pre-clinical, para-clinical, and clinical departments. Sessions covered CBME competencies, learning domains, interactive teaching methods, assessment planning, AETCOM, SDL, clinical/practical skill teaching, mentoring, and lesson planning.

Evaluation scores indicated a high level of satisfaction, with excellent ratings for resource faculty, session quality, learning materials, and overall organization. Retro-pre-analysis demonstrated a marked improvement in faculty understanding across all modules. Participant feedback highlighted good organization, effective teaching, and engaging group activities, with suggestions for increased use of demonstrations and more discussion time.

The workshop strengthened faculty competence in CBME-aligned teaching and assessment, contributing significantly to ongoing faculty development and enhancement of educational practices at the University.
